Project Description

Title:

CampusWar

Designer:

Zhang Yiwen (A0099332Y)

Homepage:

index.html

Description:

The website is a promoting website for a campus-wide location-based game. The game allows users to check in at specific locations, gain credits which later on can be transferred into CORS bidding points, and complete missions assigned by other users. The websites consists of 5 parts, including the header. The rest 4 parts are general introduction of the game (including the registration area), short description of the three main features of the game (check-in, conquer a physical venue and complete missions.
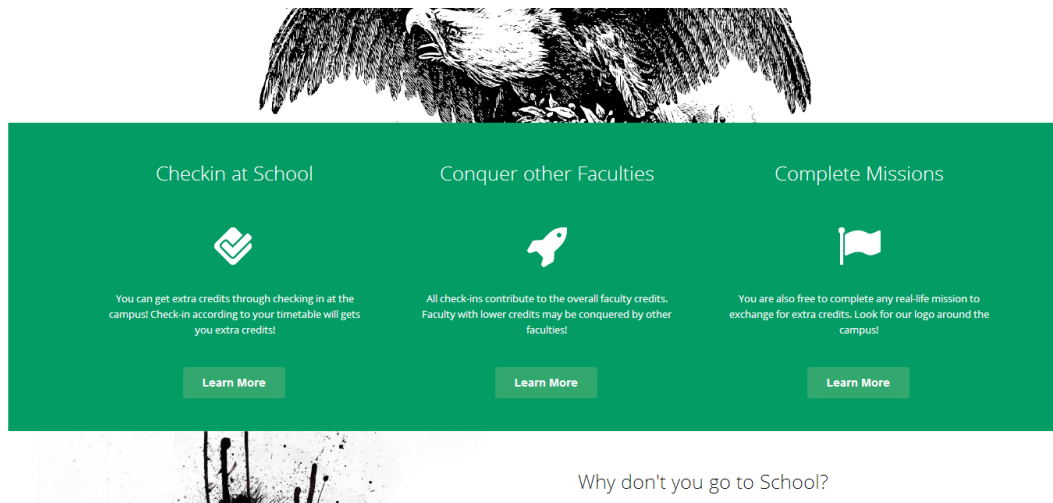

Requirement Fulfillment:

Usage of a grid system

The website is constructed based on grid system as indicated below in the code screenshot

Responsive Design

The website applies responsible design by having different layout for desktop viewer and mobile viewer.

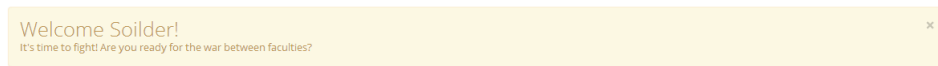

Desktop View

Mobile View

Any of the base CSS

The form is adapted from Bootstrap base CSS

Republic of Computing and Business Kingdom, etc.As the citizen of one of the countries, you have fight for your nation! Come on! Wake up and go to school! You can save your country through completing missions, checking in at different places around the campus and exploring new areas in the campus!

Come and leave your NUSNET ID below and be the next hero!

Any of the components

The alert box located at the top of the webpage is adapted from Bootstrap Components

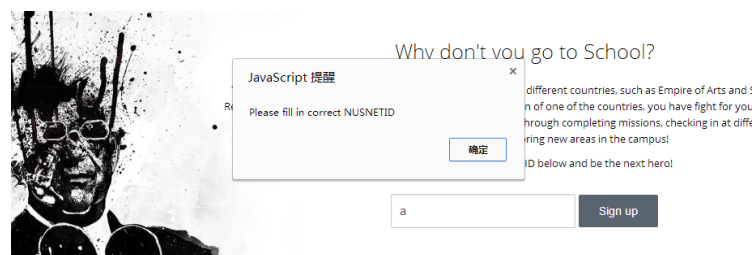

Any of the JavaScript category item

The collapse menu in mobile view is adapted from Bootstrap JavaScript Item

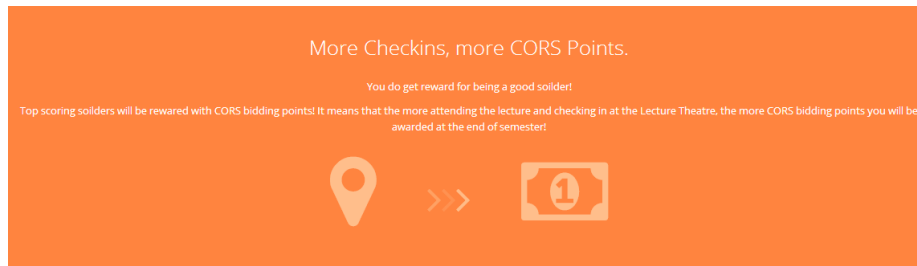

Form Validation

The text box applies form validation that only valid NUSNET ID can be submitted.

jQuery Effects

The animation is achieved using jQuery Effects

External Libraries/Resources:

CSS

Bootstrap
Kanso
Font Awesome
Google Font for Open Sans

Images

http://www.i2clipart.com/clipart-war-eagle-7592
http://www.redbubble.com/people/soundandvision/works/1320733-war-within-a-breath
http://www.fromoldbooks.org/OldEngland/pages/0075-British-War-Chariot,-Shield-and-Spears/